

2013 Employee of the Year

Rodney Jones

Human Service Program Specialist

The Florida Department of Health in Seminole County is a special place, and we could not do what we do without our talented workforce, and this includes Rodney. He has demonstrated the values consistently over the year, has gone above and beyond in the work he does. He leads pushes public health to the next level.

From Tallahassee to various surrounding counties, Rodney's work ethic is known and commendable. He assists whenever and wherever it is needed with enthusiasm, energy and utmost professionalism. He has demonstrated leadership at DOH-Seminole and continues to work with not only all internal programs, but outside of Seminole County. Rodney has proven himself to be a valuable employee and has a high-level of involvement and outstanding performance of his duties.

Rodney, is a valuable member of the team who is always willing to help without hesitation. He continues to forge great personal relationships in our community, state as well as with staff. Take a moment to thank Rodney for his work and for making a difference!

